“On the road” is the visual tale of a 4-week road trip across North America. Starting in Seattle, we travelled through the United States and Canada from West to East until we reached New York City. This book gathers the most striking landscapes and cityscapes we encountered along the way, from fields to deserts, from skyscrapers to canyons, from wildlife to mountains...
